

Alexandria N. Gonzalez

Associate

angonzalez@thompsoncoe.com | 512-703-5066

Alexandria is an associate working in the insurance defense section. She focused on civil litigation during her time in law school by taking courses like Expert Witness, Mass Tort Litigation, and Eminent Domain & Private Property. She also took part in the Criminal Defense Clinic her entire last year of law school and was able to take a case to trial. Litigation is her passion, and she is excited to start her career in civil litigation here at Thompson Coe Cousins & Irons.

Services & Industries

- Litigation

Education

- The University of Texas School of Law (J.D., 2019)
 - Co-Managing Editor, Texas Hispanic Journal of Law & Policy 2018
 - CALI Excellence for the Future Award – Legal Research & Writing I (Fall 2016)
 - South Texas College of Law Presidential Fellow (Spring 2017)
 - Member of the Barbara Jordan American Inn of Court (2017-2018)
 - Recipient of the Hispanic Bar Association of Austin Bar Review Scholarship (2019)
- University of Texas at Austin (B.J., 2011)

Professional and Community Activities

- Member of the American Bar Association – Section of Litigation
- Member of the Austin Bar Association
- Member of the Austin Young Lawyers Association
- The University of Texas School of Law – Class of 2019 Steering Committee

Languages

- English
- Spanish