Partner

cfrazier@thompsoncoe.com | 713-403-8265

Christopher Frazier maintains a diverse casualty litigation practice with an emphasis on defending companies and individuals in personal injury, wrongful death, negligence, deceptive trade practices, premises liability, and products liability matters. Christopher also represents general contractors and property owners in workplace injury litigation.

Christopher handles all aspects of civil litigation, including depositions, complex discovery, mediations, trials and arbitrations.

Christopher focuses on the best interests of his client, which includes early case evaluation and resolution to avoid potentially expensive litigation, so long as it is on favorable terms to his client.

Thomson Reuters has named Christopher as a Super Lawyers' Texas Rising Star - a distinction received by less than 2.5% of the attorneys in Texas. He is also a Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation.
