Erika Laremont joined Thompson Coe in 2017 as a Senior Attorney, bringing 20+ years of litigation experience to the Professional Liability section.

As part of the Professional Liability section, Erika represents attorneys, accountants, real estate agents, and insurance agents with professional malpractice, breach of contract and DTPA claims. She also handles cases for the Casualty section, representing trucking companies, commercial businesses, apartment complexes, and industrial employers on personal injury claims. With an extensive litigation and appellate background, Erika is able to assess the strengths and weaknesses of her cases and provide her clients with a concise, yet comprehensive evaluation of the case. Clients can expect nothing less than excellence, dedication, and candor from Erika in her desire to represent her clients to the best of her abilities to reach successful outcomes.

Erika graduated summa cum laude from St. Mary's University with a degree in Political Science. She then moved to Austin to attend the University of Texas School of Law. Prior to joining Thompson Coe, she worked at Brown McCarroll, LLP, and spent nine years as an Assistant Attorney General with the Attorney General of Texas in the General Litigation Division where she represented state universities, agencies, and officials in state and federal courts on various employment and constitutional claims.
