214-292-7543

Haley Heinrich focuses her practice on representing clients in both commercial and residential construction disputes. She has successfully represented general contractors, builders, engineers, and subcontractors in evaluating construction contracts and in defect cases involving electrical, structural, water intrusion, flooding, and other issues. As a result, Haley has developed a nuanced understanding of the construction process which she utilizes to advocate and achieve results for her clients.

Haley is also an experienced appellate attorney and has represented clients in a variety of commercial cases ranging from land disputes to business divorces.
