Alexandria Hendry is a trial attorney focusing on auto/trucking accidents, premises liability, and general negligence claims. She has experience representing individual and corporate clients in all aspects of civil litigation.

Before joining the firm, Alexandria served as staff counsel to a major insurance company, handling third-party litigation matters. During this time, she worked closely with the insurers and clients to properly assess and mitigate risks, provide sound legal guidance, and fiercely defend every case entrusted to her.

During law school, Alexandria clerked for a plaintiffs' firm, focusing on product liability and catastrophic injury. Her experience on both sides of litigation brings a comprehensive understanding that enhances her ability to serve clients effectively.
