

Ann Parrish

Partner

aparrish@thompsoncoe.com

214-292-7541

Ann Parrish focuses her practice on insurance coverage, bad faith defense, first-party and third-party insurance defense, general civil defense, and construction defect defense.

She has provided coverage advice to commercial and personal lines carriers in various matters, including commercial liability, construction defect claims, business interruption loss-of-use claims, property damage, and Uninsured Motorists.

Ann also has extensive experience defending construction defect, personal injury, premises liability, and insurance defense claims. She handles a variety of claims in state and federal court and has worked directly with insurance industry professionals to provide coverage evaluations and efficiently resolve claims.

Ann is responsive to clients and claims professionals and is straightforward with evaluations regarding liability and damages exposure analysis.

Representative Experience

Obtained summary judgment in favor of insurer in multimillion-dollar coverage claim.

Continued defense of and resolution of residential lawsuits resulting from weather catastrophes occurring throughout the state on behalf of multiple insurance carriers.

Represented and advised various insurers in investigating numerous personal property claims through conducting examinations under oath.

Represented and advised various personal and commercial property insurers regarding legal issues unique to policies' appraisal clause.

Represented contractors and subcontractors in multimillion dollar construction defect claims.

Related Services

General Liability/Catastrophic Injury

Insurance

Education, Admissions & Activities

EDUCATION

Pepperdine University School of Law

J.D., cum laude, 1995

University of Southern California

B.A., 1992

Psychology

BAR ADMISSIONS

Texas

2000

COURT ADMISSIONS

United States District Court of Texas

Northern, Eastern, and Southern