Artichala Wise is a trial attorney who focuses on auto/trucking accidents, premises liability, and general negligence claims. She has experience representing individual and corporate clients in all aspects of civil litigation. With a background as a social worker, Artichala brings a compassionate, client-centered approach to her legal practice. Her unique understanding of client challenges and legal experience provides practical and empathetic representation.

Before joining the firm, Artichala served as staff counsel to a major insurance company, handling first-party and third-party litigation matters. During this time, she worked closely with insurers and clients to properly assess and mitigate risks, provide sound legal guidance, and fiercely defend every case entrusted to her. During her last year in law school, she served as a Law Clerk at the Fifth District Court of Appeals, Dallas.
