Cody Taylor is a passionate advocate for his clients, with a focus on general liability and catastrophic injury. He represents large commercial retailers regarding premises liability claims. His strengths include fact development and case valuation.

Cody helps his clients resolve their issues by thoroughly developing case facts to ensure the most accurate valuation of the claim. By accurately valuing the claim, Cody advises clients on the best course of action regarding case disposition.

Representative Experience

Obtained voluntary dismissals for a client's insured motorist who was named in multiple lawsuits stemming from the infamous I-35W Pileup (over 100 vehicles involved) that occurred in February of 2022.

Obtained several voluntary dismissals of claims and have settled over 30 cases.
