Coyt Johnston is a trial lawyer who primarily focuses his practice on professional liability, involving lawyers, accountants, architects, and other professionals. He also represents clients in commercial business disputes of all sizes and nature.

Coyt is known as an exceptionally talented lawyer who combines next-level creativity with strong attention to detail and dogged pursuit of the best interests of his clients.

Representative Experience

Obtained a take nothing jury verdict for a lawyer and law firm after trial involving claims of legal malpractice, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, fraudulent inducement, and violations of the Texas Deceptive Trade Practice Act.

Successfully defended a medical professional against salacious allegations along with exposing the lawsuit to be a complicated extortion scheme against the client.
