An insurance coverage attorney, David Jewett defends clients in automobile and trucking liability and premises liability cases. David has more than 16 years of experience defending first-party and third-party personal injury cases in South and Central Texas, from inception through trial. David is also experienced in construction defects and insurance coverage. As a former TV news anchor, he is a great communicator who thrives on presenting cases in front of juries.

Representative Experience

Worked for over ten years as In-House Trial Attorney for two different Fortune 200 insurance carriers.

Obtained defense verdicts with no award to plaintiffs (or verdicts less than the last pre-trial offer) in 10 of his last 28 jury trials.
