832-482-2821

Dierra Mize focuses her practice on general liability and catastrophic injury. She has experience assisting with complex criminal defense cases at both the state and federal levels —encompassing misdemeanors, felonies, and capital cases, which gives her a unique perspective.

She understands that every case carries real consequences for her clients, and she approaches each matter with the urgency, preparation, and precision it deserves. She brings a practical mindset toward risk assessment and trial strategy. Clients value her ability to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of a case thoroughly, view it from every angle, anticipate jury responses, as well as her strong work ethic and commitment to delivering exceptional results.

Dierra brings a strong sense of purpose and is committed to approaching every case with integrity and determination. Her path to the profession fuels her drive to thoroughly and fiercely advocate for every client.
