Ethan Edwards is a civil litigation attorney that focuses his practice on Labor & Employment. His practice primarily concentrates on disputes involving employment discrimination, retaliation, and wrongful termination claims.

He understands the Labor & Employment litigation process from a holistic standpoint. Ethan has experience on both sides of the litigation process representing plaintiffs and defendants, alike. This experience gives him the ability to understand and predict the actions of the opposing side in each case.

Ethan takes a careful and analytical approach in each case, ensuring critical details do not go unnoticed. His clients can rest easy knowing that their cases are in more-than-capable hands.
