Gordan focuses his litigation practice on premises liability, dram shop, products liability, construction, and landlord/tenant matters. He is an aggressive litigator, who successfully represents his clients in state and federal courts. Gordan handles these cases from claim onset, assisting in pre-suit investigations, through trial with an eye on obtaining the best and most cost-effective result for his clients.

Gordan understands every case is not the same and deserves a unique and tailored approach. Gordan has successfully tried cases in court and arbitration to verdict. He has also resolved numerous cases by summary judgment or settlements for clients throughout Texas.

Premises Liability

Gordan defends business owners—such as grocery stores, apartment complexes, and movie theatres—in cases alleging premises liability

Dram Shop

In cases asserting the Texas Dram Shop Statute, he represents grocery store owners, bars, and restaurants.

Construction

Gordan represents product manufacturers, distributors, contractors, and road construction companies in high-exposure claims involving construction defect and product liability.

Security

In cases involving inadequate security allegations, Gordan represents security companies and premises owners. He also represents residential owners, commercial owners, and property management companies in landlord/tenant matters ranging from evictions, breach of contract, and other landlord/tenant issues.

Representative Experience

Obtained summary judgment on behalf of an entertainment company involving claims of assault.
