Kaitlin Cswaykus is a multi-faceted healthcare litigation lawyer who approaches complex legal issues with a methodical, client-focused mindset. Her diverse civil litigation experience spans more than a decade. Her primary area of focus is healthcare litigation, including medical malpractice and healthcare liability claims.

She defends healthcare institutions and professionals, adeptly identifying critical issues at the outset of litigation and working with clients to develop a strategy that protects their interests. Listening to clients and honoring their concerns and the concerns of their stakeholders is a high priority for her.

Kaitlin also serves the insurance, hospitality, and retail industries. She litigates personal injury and insurance coverage matters in state and federal courts, and she truly loves federal litigation.
