214-292-3897

Marlaina Wright is building a practice focusing on-premise and products liability, mass tort, and general negligence cases.

Prior to joining Thompson Coe, Marlaina worked as an associate attorney at a boutique firm in Dallas where she worked with various transactional/contractual agreements and civil litigation disputes.

She enjoys the challenge of analyzing and identifying problems and finding solutions. She strives to provide quality representation by building strong client relationships.

While in law school, Marlaina participated in Emory's Black Law Student Association mock trial competition and served as an Executive Managing Editor of Emory International Law Review. She is known for her positive attitude and acute attention to detail.
