

Martin Arroyo Jr.

Associate

marroyo@thompsoncoe.com

512-703-5046

Martin Arroyo Jr. is a civil litigation and appellate attorney that focuses on complex construction litigation. His practice centers around the defending construction companies and other related contractors from various legal allegations that they encounter.

Prior to working at Thompson Coe Martin was an Assistant Attorney General at the Attorney General's Office of Texas representing various state agencies lawsuits filed against them in employment, constitutional, and other related matters

Representative Experience

Represented various state agencies in employment discrimination suits successfully obtaining dismissal of those suits or favorable settlement agreements.

Obtained reversal of a denied Plea to the Jurisdiction for two different state universities at the state appellate level.

Clerked for Senior Judge Robert T. Dawson in the Western District of Arkansas, assisting in both a jury trial and a bench trial.

Related Services

Professional Liability

Education, Admissions & Activities

EDUCATION

University of Arkansas School of Law

J.D., 2022

T.C. and Rosemary Carlson Memorial Award in Constitutional Law

Bard Rogan National Resources Award

Note and Comment Editor on the Arkansas Law Review

University of Texas at Dallas

B.A., 2017

Political Science

BAR ADMISSIONS

Texas

2022

COURT ADMISSIONS

United States District Court of Texas

Eastern, Southern, Western

United States Court of Appeals

Fifth Circuit

United States Court of Appeals

District of Columbia Circuit

LANGUAGES

Spanish