Mycal Dédé is a litigator with a focused practice in administrative law, regulatory defense, professional licensing and liability. He represents licensed professionals and businesses across Texas facing government investigations, board inquiries, and high-stakes disciplinary actions.

His clients include physicians, pharmacists, real-estate developers, attorneys, and other professionals navigating complex proceedings before their respective licensing agencies. Mycal's practice is grounded in clear communication, strategic thinking, and a deep understanding of his client's specific needs. He guides clients through each stage of the regulatory process, from initial investigation to contested hearings. Mycal focuses on minimizing disruption and restoring licensure as quickly and cleanly as possible.

In addition to his licensing work, Mycal has represented numerous transportation and logistics companies in personal injury defense and general liability matters. He also advises clients on risk management strategies to reduce exposure and improve regulatory compliance.
