

Robert T. Soluri

Associate

rsoluri@thompsoncoe.com

512-703-5052

Robert Soluri focuses his practice on general liability and catastrophic injury matters. He is dedicated to helping clients navigate complex legal challenges with practical guidance, clear communication, and a solutions-oriented approach.

Robert values building strong relationships with clients and takes the time to understand their unique needs and objectives. He brings a passion for advocacy and problem-solving to every matter he handles.

Background

Prior to joining Thompson Coe, Robert served as a prosecutor, where he advocated on behalf of the Austin community and those impacted by the criminal justice system. A lifelong Austin resident since the age of six, Robert is proud to continue serving the community that helped shape him.

Representative Experience

First-chaired a bench trial involving a first-degree felony and related charges, obtaining guilty verdicts on all counts.

Managed an active docket of more than 300 cases and represented the State in hundreds of criminal proceedings as a prosecutor.

Related Services

Education, Admissions & Activities

EDUCATION

St. Mary's School of Law

J.D., 2025

Pro bono service hour certificate

Mock Trial

Vice president Criminal Law association

St. Edwards' University

B.A., 2022

Criminal Justice

President: MCLA Lacrosse club

Honors Society

BAR ADMISSIONS

Texas

2025