Sydney Smalling focuses her practice on civil litigation, emphasizing premises liability, construction defects, and automobile/trucking accidents.

During law school, Sydney gained invaluable judicial insight through externships with the Honorable Irma C. Ramirez and David L. Horan in the Northern District of Texas and the Honorable Kimberly Priest Johnson in the Eastern District of Texas. Additionally, she served as a student attorney in the Judge Elmo B. Hunter Legal Center for Victims of Crimes Against Women clinic.

Before joining the firm, Sydney interned on Capitol Hill for the United States House of Representatives and for the Missouri House of Representatives.
