214-292-3928

Yunju “Rosa” Sung represents clients in various stages of civil litigation involving complex commercial claims, personal injury claims, product liability, premises liability, construction defect, trucking, DTPA claims, state government contracts, first-party insurance claims, and real estate transaction.

Her clients include retail stores, general contractors, trucking companies, apartment complexes, insurance companies, oil & gas companies and their contractors, developers, and many more.

Before going to law school, Rosa consulted with a Japanese business consulting firm in Korea. These experiences provide her with greater insight while working with her corporate clients.

Rosa also has transactional experience in various business transactions, including purchase-sale of business assets, loan documents (i.e., promissory notes and security agreements), commercial leases, employment agreements, and independent contractor agreements.
